

Resumés and cover letters

Having a great resumé and cover letter is key when you're applying for jobs. In this series you'll find tips to make sure your resumé and cover letters stand out and get you noticed by employers. You can also find a bunch of handy templates for you to download that'll give you a great head start on your job search.

This series is interactive – click Home within the video to head back to the main screen.

Read More

- A resumé template for your first job
- How to write a cover letter with no experience
- 6 simple ways to stand out to employers when you're job hunting